

Steven Zummallen

CPE-301.1001

Final Project READ ME

This file is a short summary of what the CPE 301 Final Project is. The project is a swamp cooler that monitors water level as well as temperature and air quality. It will also allow the fan to turn on or off depending on the specific temperature. The user is also able to control the fan and program as well and is able to view records regarding air and water quality.